NOTICE OF DISCLOSURES TO EMPLOYERS

The Practice is required under federal and state laws to protect the privacy of your health information. These laws, however, allow us to disclose your health information to your employer under certain circumstances when you receive health care services at your employer's request. We are providing you with this Notice to inform you that we will disclose your PHI to your employer when:

We provide a health care service to you, at your employer's request, either to

(i) conduct an evaluation relating to medical surveillance of your workplace, or

(ii) to evaluate whether you have a work-related illness or injury. Under either of these circumstances, we will only disclose your health information that:

■ Consist of findings concerning your work-related illness or injury or the medical surveillance of your workplace; and

■ Your employer needs in order to comply with its obligations under federal and state laws to record work-related illnesses or injuries or to conduct medical surveillance of your workplace.
